gant and sober forms of +Arch's new headquarters for Dolce and the highly original new soccer stadium in Siena by Iotti + outh he highlights some remarkable new architecture in d Sicily injected with a rare poetic sensibility.

Giovanni Vaccarini, New cemetery, Ortona a Mare, Chieti, Abruzzo, 2005
The Ortona cemetery is one of Vaccarini's most successful projects. It is characterised by a pleasurable relationship with the surrounding landscape, the choice of materials and the forms of the built volumes, all of which create a sense of serenity and give a human scale to the complex.
